

WEDDINGS
AT LINCOLN'S INN

The Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn

On an 11 acre estate, nestled in the heart of central London, lies the Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn. The oldest and largest of the four Inns of Court, Lincoln's Inn is home to grand halls, period rooms, and tranquil lawns; all within 10 minutes walk from the London Underground.

From an intimate ceremony in the Tudor building, to a show-stopping feast in our magnificent Great Hall, we offer a number of settings to suit all requirements.

If you are after something more bespoke, please get in touch, as we are happy to collaborate with you to create the day of your dreams.

THE GREAT HALL

Our Spaces

The Great Hall, Bench Rooms & East Terrace

If you're looking for grandeur on your wedding day, look no further than the Great Hall. Opened in 1845 by Queen Victoria, this Tudor revival hall is considered to be one of the most impressive surviving buildings of its kind in London. Featuring a magnificent elevated ceiling, stunning stained glass windows and a vast fresco by the renowned artist G.F. Watts, the Great Hall is a perfect backdrop for a black-tie wedding.

Hire of the Great Hall includes hire of the accompanying Bench Rooms and our East Terrace*, where your guests can gather before your ceremony, or enjoy a sparkling reception before a double door entrance into the hall for the wedding breakfast.

Our Spaces

The Old Hall, Crypt & Chapel Lawn

Built in 1490, the Old Hall is steeped in history. Originally used for ‘moots’, or mock-trials, meetings and communal dining, this incredible space is certainly one for lovers of the arts. The Hall houses the beautiful painting ‘Paul Before Felix’ commissioned by the Inn in 1747 from renowned artist William Hogarth, and is even the setting for the first chapter of Bleak House by Charles Dickens.

Hire of the Old Hall includes hire of the Crypt, alongside the Chapel Lawn, both of which can be used as a space for a canapé reception post-ceremony.

FOOD

Our in-house catering team has been delivering exceptional service since the late 15th century. Focussing on flavour and sustainability, the award winning team of chefs only use what's in season, so you can experience British produce at it's best.

Featuring produce grown onsite in our herb gardens and cooked using the finest modern and classic techniques, our menus are certain to give your guests a meal they cannot stop talking about.

WINE

At Lincoln's Inn, we take our wine seriously. All wines on our menu have been carefully selected by our wine committee to showcase excellent grape varieties and pair well with food. Including our very own Lincoln's Inn Champagne!

For wine pairings with your three-course meal, please speak to your wedding coordinator.
